Savage Attacks Being Made By German Forces

Desperate Effort Being Made To Force Americans Back In Germany

GEN. HODGES' ARMY MEN HOLD FIRM
By LEE CARSON
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WITH THE U. S. FIRST ARMY, Germany, Nov. 6.—The Germans hurled a savage three-pronged counter-attack against the American First Army in the Huertgen forest today in a desperate effort to force the dogged Yanks back.

Attacking in force from the southwest, from Huertgen west toward Vossaneck and rolling north from the town of Schmidt, the Germans rushed American lines with infantry columns supported by Tiger tanks.

The crowded black forest of Huertgen crashed and rocked with the sound of the furious battle. But Lieut. Gen. Courtney H. Hodges' infantrymen were holding firm in the face of the first concerted attack since the fall of Aachen.

SUPREME HEADQUARTERS, Allied Expeditionary Force, France, Nov. 6.—The American First Army in Germany battled forward today to score small gains against heavy opposition from Nazi artillery, tanks and infantry.

The troops commanded by Lieut. Gen. Courtney H. Hodges forced their way across heavily mined terrain which the enemy raked with artillery and small arms fire to hinder the Yank progress southwest of Huertgen which lies south-east of Aachen.

PA NEWC Observes

Tuesday is election day and it's your duty to go to the polls and vote.

First snow of the season was noted in this area on Sunday afternoon.

Stoneboro reports that Rev. R. I. McConnell of that place, formerly of New Castle, has given eight blood donations to the Red Cross, which placed him in the "Gallon Club."

At Columbus, O., it is announced that youths who seek to vote who are suspected of being under 21 years of age, will likely be required to produce their draft card to prove their age. There was a report in that city that some under 21 years of age were going to seek to vote.

Baby squirrels learning to jump from one limb to another were the reason at least one person was late to work on Saturday morning. A woman who works in a downtown office admits that she was tempted to be late because of the interesting way the mother squirrel was teaching the young ones to jump.

She made a "follow-the-leader" game out of it.

Congress Control At Stake Tuesday

Soldier Vote May Determine State Election

New House Of Representatives And 36 Senators Will Be Elected

NAME GOVERNORS IN 31 STATES ALSO

By WILLIAM S. NEAL
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—The nation tomorrow chooses a new house of representatives, 36 senators and 31 governors, with Republicans given the best chance in 14 years to capture control of congress.

While control of congress usually follows the result of the election for president, it appeared possible that a close race between President Roosevelt and Gov. Thomas E. Dewey might result in divided government control.

Claims Differ
Democratic leaders claimed they will pick up seats both in the house and senate with candidates riding the tailwind of a Roosevelt sweep, but Republicans contended they will win the house even if Roosevelt is elected.

Forli Airfield On Italian Front Is Now Near Capture

ROME, Nov. 6.—(INS)—Troops of the Allied Eighth Army in Italy have ousted the Germans from all of Forli airfield with the exception of a few buildings on the eastern corner of the airfield, headquarters of Gen. Sir Henry Maitland Wilson reported today.

The major portion of the field was seized as the result of sharp clashes during the past four days.

Nazi tanks attacked from the west but were forced to withdraw and then the Germans kept the airfield under continuous fire with multiple mortar batteries.

The German air force made a reappearance over the Italian front during the night to attack Fifth Army positions south of Livorno, below Bologna, and rear supply lines.

Germans Fighting Fanatical Battle

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—(INS)—Three bitter counter-attacks were launched early today against the American first army forces in the Aachen area as the Nazis fought fanatically to regain their hold on strategic Schmidt village. James Cassidy, reporter for the NBC and station WLW in Cincinnati, said today in a broadcast from Germany.

"German planes are appearing all over the place," Cassidy said. "The seriousness with which the enemy regards this situation is revealed in the fact that he is opposing us around Schmidt not with second-rate soldiers, but with well trained crack troops—the best he has."

First Snow Of Season Occurs

First blasts of winter came unusually late this year, snow being observed for the first time locally on Sunday, with about an inch and a half falling during the day. Because of the warmth of the ground, little of it remained, although traces could be seen on roof tops this morning.

The wintry weather followed a week of unusually warm weather for this season of the year, when the temperatures stood in the 70's for several days.

American Bombers Break Up Jap Reinforcement Attempt In The Bonins

By RICHARD V. HALLER
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

PEARL HARBOR, Nov. 6.—Breaking up another enemy attempt to slip reinforcements to their bypassed bases in the Pacific, American bombers hit two destroyers and ten transports in the Bonins, according to the latest communique from Pacific fleet headquarters.

Striking at the source of the infiltration attempt, Liberators of the Seventh Army Air Force based in the Marianas, bombed nine of the transports and the destroyers in the harbor at Chichi Jima and another large transport at Haha Jima, November 2.

With the rapid westward advance of the offensive ring around Japan, several enemy bases have been skirted and left to "die on the vine." Such formerly powerful air and naval bastions as Yap, Truk, Sorol and Nauru Islands as well as several atolls in the Marshalls and Babelthuap in the Palauas, have been bypassed and left for possible fleet action.

Dewey Plans For Campaign End

Will Make Final Appeals To Voters Tonight—Gets Reports

TO VOTE TUESDAY IN NEW YORK CITY

By LEO W. O'BRIEN
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 6.—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, carrying his battle for the presidency down to the wire, will make two eleven-hour appeals tonight to the voters.

In addition to a 15-minute broadcast from the executive mansion, which will be carried on all major radio networks between 11 and 11:15 p. m. (EWT), the GOP candidate for the White House has agreed to a nationwide re-broadcast of his Saturday night speech in Madison Square Garden.

That re-broadcast will be carried over the Mutual network tonight between 9:30 and 10 o'clock (EWT). Republican leaders believe the Dewey speech in New York Saturday was the most effective of his campaign. It summarized all the major issues he has raised since Sept. 7 and GOP strategists are hopeful that its re-broadcast will win enough wavering voters in key states to provide the balance of power in a close election.

It was admitted that damage was done but the Japs claimed air and ground defenses shot down 17 of the raiders and damaged three others.

Soviet Airmen Join In Battle For Budapest

Reports Indicate Russians Smashing Into Hungarian Capital From North And South

By NATALIA RENE
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

MOSCOW, Nov. 6.—A terrific aerial bombardment was opened by the Soviet air force today against German-controlled communications radiating from the doomed city of Budapest, capital of Hungary.

The aerial onslaught, described as a dawn-to-dusk sky operation to cripple all enemy communications, got under way as the Second Ukrainian Army intensified the ground attack to take the city and topple Hungary from the war.

German and Russian broad-casts smashed into Budapest from the north and south. The German radio said Soviet tank forces had reached the southern metropolitan area, only two miles from the heart of the town. A Bucharest transmission reported that other Red troops, dashing around the eastern side of the capital, had crashed into the city from the north and also moved 12 miles beyond.

Heavy Vote Is Forecast For Lawrence Co.

Polls Open Tuesday At 7 A. M. And Close At 8 O'Clock In Evening

Months of preparation and weeks of active campaigning are finished by the Republican and Democratic parties and candidates leaders and workers are coasting today, waiting for the day of decision, Tuesday, November 7, when the next president and vice president of the United States, a number of state and district officers will be filled. In the past two weeks the apparent apathy of the early campaign seems to have been shaken off and indications point to a heavy civilian vote. In addition to the civilian vote there will be between 2500 and 3000 military ballots to count out these will not be counted until November 22.

Expert Opinions
A compilation of the political "experts" over the country leads one to the opinion that the result nationally will be close as between President Roosevelt and Governor Dewey. In Lawrence County it is believed that the county will go Republican, for in the past week there has been agreement in the statements of party leaders that the county would show a majority for the GOP. As to how much is something else again. Conservative Republicans have placed the majority at 2500, the more liberal put the majority at 3500. Many election board vacancies have been filled in the past week by the Lawrence County court and so far as is known the boards are filled in all 99 precincts. The balloting starts at 7 o'clock Tuesday morning and continues uninterrupted (Continued on Page Two)

British In Burma Making New Gains

KANDY, Ceylon, Nov. 6.—(INS)—Imperial British troops pushing eastward into Burma scored new gains along the Tiddim-Port White road, headquarters of the South-east Asia command reported today. An small-scale Jap attack in the Kaladid area, five miles north of Palaw, was beaten off by West African troops.

Three of a small force of Jap planes attempting a sweep over central Burma were shot down by Allied craft, a fourth probably was destroyed and three others were damaged. Anti-aircraft damaged four more. One Allied plane was reported missing.

Reminder To Election Boards

The News is reminding members of the election boards in New Castle and Lawrence County precincts of the request that reports of total count for offices in their precincts be given as soon as completed Tuesday night.

There is more than ever a keen interest in the outcome of the vote in every section of Pennsylvania, and early reports will help in the situation.

Call 4000 with returns from your precinct as soon as available, on any offices. Thanks.

Yank Doughboys Driving Forward On Leyte Island

Fighting Way Into Last Jap Stronghold In Ormoc Sector

By LEE VAN ATTA
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

GEN. MACARTHUR'S HEADQUARTERS, Philippines, Nov. 6.—Gen. MacArthur's battle-hardened doughboys were fighting their way into the last Jap stronghold on Leyte today—the beleaguered Ormoc sector.

They have captured the town of Panamopan on the northern flank of the coastal corridor on the northwest portion of the island and are shoving their way southwards in a furious campaign to completely annihilate the Japs before they can escape from Ormoc bay to Cebu or other nearby islands in the central Philippines.

Knock Out Jap Resistance
As they moved down the main road leading to Ormoc, knocking over all forms of Jap resistance, the Yanks of the 24th Infantry division were aided by American long-range artillery which played an important part in the drive for complete conquest of the island.

The American guns first dropped their shells on Panamopan, blowing the Japs from their pillboxes and disrupting their communications.

Japs who holed up in caves on the outskirts of the town suddenly found themselves blasted out in no uncertain terms.

They regrouped temporarily and attempted to retake the town, only to be set down hard by the swift moving Yankee assault troops.

Once Panamopan was secured by MacArthur's ground forces, the artillery leveled its sights on the Jap reinforcements which were ferried across the Camotes sea for a possible showdown battle with the Yanks.

Meanwhile, units of the American seventh infantry operating south of Ormoc were rapidly advancing northwards, according to Gen. MacArthur, punching out a gain of 14 miles from Baybay towards Ormoc, and were last reported within 16 miles of the village itself.

Millions Will Vote Tuesday For President

All Forecasts On Eve Of Election Show Result Expected To Be Close

'SILENT VOTE' IS UNKNOWN FACTOR

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—The first modern wartime presidential campaign comes to a close today with the outcome in the hands of millions of "silent voters" who can give either President Roosevelt or Gov. Thomas E. Dewey a landslide victory in the electoral college.

Every sign points to a close popular election but the great mass of "silent voters"—who refuse to participate in polls—can give either nominee an overwhelming electoral vote by supporting him en masse.

A final weekend checkup of a nation-wide poll by International News Service shows Roosevelt the favorite in nineteen states with 183 electoral votes and Dewey the favorite in twenty states with 204 electoral votes. The poll showed the remaining states may go either way.

May Hold Decision
In any event, the voters of New York, Pennsylvania and Massachusetts can throw the election either to Roosevelt or Dewey. Most observers believe Dewey will carry New York, thereby giving the voters of Pennsylvania and Massachusetts the "balance of power."

All portents meanwhile point to election of a Republican house of representatives and retention of Democratic control of the senate. Actually the senate will be run for the next two years by a coalition of Republican and anti-new deal Democrats. This appears to be the outcome of the congressional elections, regardless of the presidential victory.

There are signs that national politics may get one or two overwhelming surprises. One is that California may go Republican. The (Continued on Page Two)

President Will Make Final Talk

Plans Climax To Month's Campaign In Broadcast This Evening

TO VOTE TUESDAY AT HYDE PARK

By ROBERT G. NIXON
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

HYDE PARK, N. Y., Nov. 6.—President Roosevelt, a few hours before some 50 million Americans go to the polls in this crucial fourth term campaign talk to the nation tonight.

The chief executive, climaxing a month's campaigning during which he has made seven major addresses, will speak for a quarter of an hour late this evening during an hour-long nationwide broadcast sponsored by the Democratic national committee.

The president's talk will be part of a broadcast from 10 to 11 p. m. (EWT)—a program devoted to "getting out the vote" and to a last-minute presentation of the Democratic fourth term arguments.

To Vote Tuesday Morning
Earlier in the day, Mr. Roosevelt will motor over the picturesque Hudson valley countryside, visiting his neighbors and making a brief on-the-spot re-election talk in the villages and towns of this legendary and historic Hudson highlands farm country.

On Tuesday morning, the president and Mrs. Roosevelt, like millions of other Americans, will go to the polls to vote.

The president and Mrs. Roosevelt will cast their ballots in their little one-story weathered town hall in Hyde Park village as has been their custom for years.

As has been his custom in the past three presidential elections, Mr. Roosevelt came back to his Hudson valley home, on its bluff overlooking the broad sweep of the river of Washington Irving's legends and the Catskills beyond, to await the nation's verdict on Tuesday.

Kweilin Defenders Halt Jap Drives

CHUNGKING, Nov. 6.—(INS)—The Chinese defenders of Kweilin, capital of Kwansu province, have beaten off Japanese attempts to penetrate deeper into the city, reports from the fighting front said today. Enemy columns which bypassed Kweilin in the push southward to Luchow were declared 34 miles from their objective.

Two-thirds of the new road connecting China with India has been completed. The Chungking newspaper Lu Kung Pao declared today. Work is progressing on the section between Pochan and Myitkina, the publication reported.

NO SMOKING AT POLLING PLACES

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—(INS)—Mayor F. H. LaGuardia today had a reminder especially for women that there will be no smoking at New York's polling places.

"Remember that smoking is not permitted in a polling place," he said in his broadcast yesterday. "Remember that, ladies, won't you please?"

Arthur Mometer

No matter how busy you think you are, nor the number of things to be done, and the unfinished business that lies on your desk, and the jobs that haven't begun, you ought to take time to get out and vote, and see that your family does too, for this is tomorrow's important job, the job that you ought to do. You want to go hunting, well cancel it if you can, but the balloting won't, so won't you do this, just mark yourself off a date with a square white paper down at the polls, you really should have your say, it's election time and you ought to vote, it's cool, 42 today.

Forecast Weather For Election Day Across Nation

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—(INS)—The weather bureau today issued a special election day weather forecast for all sections of the United States, in which rain was forecast over large sections of the rural Midwest, with clear and cold weather for the populous Atlantic seaboard.

The bureau anticipated that clear and cold weather will be experienced tomorrow over the Atlantic seaboard and through the Gulf States, except that it will be mild in the South.

General widespread rain will occur over the upper Mississippi valley and eastward into the western lake region. This rain will probably spread into lower Michigan and Indiana late in the day and it will cloud up into Tennessee, Kentucky and Ohio.

Showers will occur in the Missouri valley and plains states from west Texas, Oklahoma and Missouri northward.

Over the Rockies there will be snow flurries but everywhere in the Far West the weather will be clear except in the western portions of Oregon and Washington, where rain is indicated.

The forecast for New Jersey, Delaware, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia, bright and sunny, but cold.

The Republican nominee repeatedly has attacked the alleged alliance between the New Deal and the Communists.

Gov. Dewey, who returned to Albany yesterday afternoon from New York City, planned to spend today working on his night broadcast, which probably will feature a request that voters generally go to the polls tomorrow.

Crucial States

He also received final reports from National Chairman Herbert Brownell, Jr., concerning conditions in some of the doubtful states.

The general feeling among persons close to Gov. Dewey is that he will win if he can carry New York and Pennsylvania, and that his chances in both states are as good as those of President Roosevelt.

The GOP nominee will leave here tomorrow morning with Mrs. Dewey for New York City. They will vote early in the afternoon at polling place near the Roosevelt hotel, which is their voting residence, and then retire to their hotel suite to await the outcome of the election.

SOVIET AIRMEN JOIN IN BATTLE FOR BUDAPEST

defenders of Pest, on the eastern side of the Danube, had fled across the river to Buda, giving up a greater part of the sprawling capital.

Russian dispatches from the front showed that the defenses of Budapest were falling rapidly as the result of determined fighting in suburban areas of the city. Capture of a number of close-by towns was announced in the official communiqué.

These included Uello, eight miles southeast of the capital, where the Czecho-Budapest railroad was cut. Andrassy, 4 1/2 miles southeast of Budapest, seizure of which previously had been admitted by the Germans; Vasad, four miles to the southeast of Uello and near the railway; and Takosony, six miles from the capital.

Capture 3,000 Axis Troops

Capture of 3,000 more Axis troops was announced in the Soviet communiqué, making the total more than 10,000 since the big offensive designed to knock Hungary out of the war began a week ago.

The Russian army newspaper Red Star declared occupation of Budapest was a foregone conclusion and declared the Russian troops were shouting "On to Berlin!"

A supplement to the regular Soviet communiqué told of a grim artillery, tank and infantry battle close to Budapest between the Danube and Tisza rivers.

The fighting particularly was fierce, Russian advisers said, in the area of the Czecho-Budapest and Kecskemet-Budapest highways. In an effort to stem the Soviet advance at any cost, the Nazis threw four tank divisions and one "SS" mechanized division into the battle.

Continued heavy fighting was reported in East Prussia north and south of Goldap, where additional German counter-attacks by huge formations of tanks and infantry were repelled, according to the Soviet communiqué.

German losses in East Prussia have been exceedingly heavy, according to reports reaching Moscow. The Nazis are fighting with absolute disregard for human lives or war materials.

NEW HEAVY BLOWS STRUCK AT JAPS BY U. S. AIRMEN

report said American planes from bases in the Mariana Islands penetrated the Japanese homeland to carry out reconnaissance flights over Tokaido area for about an hour Sunday. Tokyo also reported heavy American air raids on the Philippines.

Longest Mission

A "substantial force" of the huge B-29s, accomplishing the longest daylight mission ever flown by military planes, smashed Singapore dockyards and repair facilities and hit at least one Japanese ship which was in drydock undergoing repairs.

The Super-bombers were believed to be on a hunt for some of the half-dozen damaged Japanese battleships which escaped from the recent historic sea-air battle of the Philippines and may have fled in direction of the Singapore base.

One, and perhaps two, of the enemy naval task forces which took part in the recent Philippines battle are believed to have been based at Singapore.

"Good to excellent" results were obtained on the Singapore raid, with direct hits observed on a control house in the largest drydock at the naval base and at other vital points. On the round-trip flight, some of the B-29s bombed the Japanese-held Pangkalan-Brandon oil refinery near Medan, on the northern coast of Dutch Sumatra, the second largest producer of aviation fuel in the Netherlands Indies.

TEN TRANSPORTS, TWO DESTROYERS, OF JAPS BOMBED

The Imperial Army had landed on Peleliu, just south of Babelthup. This claim was without confirmation from any American source. However, a Pacific fleet announcement Friday said that a Jap reconnaissance plane had been shot down over Peleliu.

Other attacks by land-based army bombers and navy planes on Jap airstrips in the Bonins, Volcano, Northern Palau and Marianas Islands and at Yap were also announced.

Seventh Liberators blasted the strips at Iwo Jima November 2. Two parked planes were destroyed and one probably. Six to eight enemy fighters were in the air but declined to attack our planes. Five of the heavy bombers were damaged by the "intense" ground fire.

Large fires and explosions were observed on Koror Island in the Northern Palau following a strike by other Liberators the same day, while Thunderbolts and heavies lashed the drome on Pagan and Rota in the Marianas.

Yap was also pounded on November 2.

stations in the Brenzoula area. The raiders caused only minor damage and no casualties.

Fighting Near Bologna

Fighting south of Bologna again was centered around Mount Belmonte.

Headquarters said that with the improvement of weather conditions in Italy patrols of both Allied armies had become very active and local improvements were scored in forward positions.

In the air, medium bombers hit at bridges and rail targets on the Brenner pass line while heavy and fighter bombers strongly supported land forces in the Po Valley. Attacks also were made on shipping in Fiume harbor and off the Dalmatian coast.

The operations, including a flight into Austria against an oil refinery, involved more than 2,500 sorties. While five Allied bombers and seven other craft were missing, headquarters reported that 15 German fighters were destroyed.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of our beloved husband and brother, Charles A. Jones, who died one year ago today: The moon and stars are shining Upon a lonely grave Where sleeps a husband and brother.

We loved but could not save. We often sit and think of you. And speak of how you died. To think you could not say good-bye Before you closed your eyes. For all of us you did your best. May God grant you eternal rest. Sadly missed by Wife and Sister. It' other that Michigan may go Democratic. Two outstanding west coast observers forecast over the weekend that California would go for Dewey by 100,000 votes. An equally prominent Detroit observer predicted Michigan would go to Roosevelt by a small margin.

How Polls Lean

The president is favored by the poll in the ten states of the solid south, plus Tennessee, Arizona, California, Montana, Nevada, Utah, Washington, Rhode Island and New Hampshire for a total of 183 electoral votes.

The poll favors Dewey in Maine, Vermont, New Jersey, Ohio, West Virginia, Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, Nebraska, Kansas, Colorado, Idaho, North Dakota, South Dakota, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Michigan, Missouri, Wyoming and New Mexico for a total of 204 electoral votes.

Kentucky and Oklahoma which favored the president last week, are now in the doubtful class.

WASHINGTON CALLING

father who assumes the loyalty of his family and friends.

Despite the incessant attack directed at this symbol for a decade with most of the resources of the press, it is apparent that it still lives in peoples' hearts and minds. It has been created, this symbol, against the background of the passage of social reforms that had been long delayed. Having fought for those reforms, usually against strong Republican opposition, FDR identifies himself with their continuity. That, it seems to me, is the real reason, apart from the appeal of his personality, why the opposition finds it so difficult to dislodge him from office.

In none of his three campaigns since his first election to office has he said anything very tangible about future directions. At the peak of his political power in 1936 he made a full dinner pail appeal, with only the last speech or two devoted to promises of further reform. That seemed to me then an opportunity for political education and enlightenment tragically wasted, and in retrospect it seems even more a lamentable failure.

I believe, with my Republican friend in the West, that we could be trusted with more of the truth. The professional politician, who constantly urges craft and caution, is no judge, it seems to me, of the temper of the country.

Victory is the goal, yes. But victory alone is not enough. With victory must go at least some degree of understanding and awareness.

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

TANTRUMS OF OLDER CHILDREN

We usually think of temper tantrums in relation only to the baby and young child. But parents and teachers know that older children also can have tantrums. You and I, indeed, know such adults who will fly into rages. Such persons never recovered from their proneness to temper outbursts in infancy or childhood.

Of a bright girl, nine, her mother writes: "She has an uncontrollable temper at times. If she cannot go as she likes, I cannot talk or reason with her on such occasion. She will answer back and say the most unbelievable things. If she is practicing she will pound the piano. Or she will throw her doll or whatever she is playing with all over the floor. I can't calm her at these times. Afterwards she generally sulk. I have tried everything and I am really worried about such conduct."

Child in a Temper
As I wrote the mother, it naturally does no good to talk and try to reason with her when she is enraged. Rather, it does harm. Instead, let her sulk. Re-buke and punishment at such times is the worst possible procedure. If, for example, you were to command this enraged child to pick up the doll she had thrown you would start a fight and be the loser.

When the child is most violent in speech or action you should be most still and calm. Wait until the storm has passed. Wait for several hours or more. Then when you feel no emotional barriers between yourself and the child calmly call to her attention how she acted in the tantrum and try to help her wish to control herself better when she is vexed the next time. Even then, you will have to be skillful and artistic in what you say, if you are to get results.

Learning Control

Often youngsters from 8 to 16 have asked me in a school forum how to control their tempers. Always I tell them they have already gone far in self-correction by having admitted the need to manage themselves. I suggest that they can do most, right now, or at other times when they are calm to control themselves when enraged, by making up their minds to do so and resolving not to allow themselves to fly off the handle. When they are facing some vexing situation they should say to themselves, "I won't do that (referring to throwing things, speaking abusively and the like). I will be calm." That after each vexing experience they had come through without blowing up or blowing up much, they should congratulate themselves on their victory. Parents given to bad tempers might also find these measures workable with themselves.

My special bulletin, "Temper Tantrums," may be had in a stamped addressed envelope by writing me at 235 East 45th street, New York City.

WASHINGTON REPORT

ner Italian war prisoners now members of Italian Service Units, tried recently to pass themselves off as American soldiers.

H. Ralph Burton, chief counsel for the House military affairs committee, said inquiry disclosed that some of the ISU members had removed armbands from their uniforms which bore the word "Italian."

"Our investigators found that the armbands were attached with elastic bands," related Burton. "When the Italians went out on the one day of recreation a week permitted them, some of them slipped the armbands off. Since they wore American uniforms, they could have been mistaken for American soldiers."

A report was made to Army authorities on the matter. Burton declared, and as a result the armbands now are sewed on.

Another Post-war Problem
A first-class battle is brewing among government agencies over the question of whether air service shall be controlled by land and water carriers in the post-war period.

The anti-trust division of the justice department is a protesting intervenor in about 30 air route applications to be heard before the civil aeronautics board.

The maritime commission, meanwhile, is intervening as an advocate of the routes of many of the cases. Since last June the justice department has protested applications for post-war air routes by surface carriers under provisions in the anti-trust laws and the civil aeronautics act of 1938.

Meanwhile Rear Adm. Emory S. Land, chairman of the maritime commission, is preparing to fight to give steamship companies the right to operate air routes.

The row has been aired recently before a congressional committee, and more will be heard about it later.

Japs Continue To Make Claims

NEW YORK Nov. 6.—(INS)—A communique issued by Jap imperial headquarters today claimed that Nipponese submarines and airplanes had sunk two aircraft carriers and had heavily damaged two others in action east of the Philippines yesterday and last Friday.

The JPC recorded the text of the communique transmitted by the Do-mo agency.

The claims put forth in the communique were entirely unsubstantiated, as were those put forth earlier by the Tokyo radio which asserted that three aircraft carriers in waters off Lamon bay, the Philippines, were damaged and another carrier sunk off the island of Sulu in Leyte gulf.

... your hour of decision is at hand!

The menace of Communism is here NOW—TODAY. It threatens our form of government—our system of business and industry—our professions—our religions—all our freedoms. You don't want this to happen to your America.

A vote for Dewey and the entire Republican ticket tomorrow, November 7th, is a vote against the unholy alliance of Roosevelt, Browder and Hillman. Vote against Communism... vote for Americanism—vote the Republican ticket.

The Communists have endorsed Roosevelt—the Fourth Term Candidate. Don't forget that when the king pin of Communists, Earl Browder, was safely in jail, President Roosevelt opened the door and set him loose.

Our dead on foreign fields must not have died in vain. We must make sure now...and for all time...on November 7..."that this Nation under God shall have a new birth of freedom"...that the American way of life "shall not perish from the earth."

E. AND A. VETERANS ENJOY REUNION

Hundred And Ten Gather Here For Annual Event Saturday Afternoon

Over 3500 years of service to the Pennsylvania Railroad were represented Saturday afternoon, November 4, in the Castleton Hotel when the Erie and Ashland Division Veterans' Association held its 22nd annual banquet and reunion. About 110 were present with T. L. H. Hofmeister of Niles, O., acting as master of ceremonies.

This banquet was somewhat different than ones held in past years in there were no speeches. P. W. Piplett, division superintendent, J. D. Henry, trainmaster, W. A. Trimble, division engineer, and E. M. Fisher, assistant road foreman of engines, representing W. H. Outcault, the road foreman were introduced and brought greetings but speeches were out. This reunion was for the purpose of visiting with old friends and the vets did just that.

The program of entertainment consisted of a group of youngsters of the Dorothea Stewart dancing school presenting numbers. The youngsters were enjoyed. Opening the dinner the crowd sang one verse of America directed by Morgan Jones with C. W. Fleming at the piano.

Many of the veterans present were honor roll men with Samuel Mulholland, a former engineer, now of Erie, taking down top honors for age. Mr. Mulholland is merely 95 years of age and made the trip from Erie to enjoy the banquet. He was one of the most interested men present. His rival in years was Percy Lavack, formerly supervisor of signals who admits to 87 years but doesn't act anything like it. From these two the ages ran down through the seventies and sixties, with a few of the younger veterans who had just finished 20 years service present.

Memorial Service

Honoring the memory of those veterans who had died in the past year a memorial service was held. In the past year 15 have died. They are Robert F. Cox, engineer; John E. Miller, watchman, H.W.C.; Wm. E. Gastinger, patrolman; Cosimo Orlando, engine watchman; David E. Myers, engineer; Albin B. Church, engineer; Charles R. Forst, foreman—track; Henry B. McConnell, clerk; Francis J. Perry, assistant superintendent; John Piller, engineer; Ira L. Cox, car inspector; Edward H. Grace, assistant trainmaster; Charles B. Strong, laborer; Harry E. Dungan, watchman, H.W.C.; Bert B. Kyser, conductor.

Officers were elected for the coming year the election resulting as follows: President, B. G. Peterson; first vice president, G. A. Guinagh; second vice president, H. E. Shader; third vice president, C. W. Fleming; fourth vice president, C. E. Armstrong; fifth vice president, W. B. Francis; secretary, E. M. Fisher, and treasurer, R. E. O'Donnell.

It was a grand reunion and banquet. For the past two years none had been held due to war time restrictions which gave this one an added interest. The turkey dinner was bountiful, the crowd was good and the veterans enjoyed themselves thoroughly.

Overseas Letter Tribute To USO

Local USO has provided a "home atmosphere" to many boys in uniform while located in this vicinity. So cordial is the hospitality that frequently letters and cards with notes of appreciation are sent to Mrs. George Bolinger, chairman of hostesses. Such contributions constantly received, evidences the good work carried on daily by New Castle folks through the USO.

Recently a V-mail letter came to Mrs. Bolinger from the South Pacific from a former Camp Reynolds soldier, Pvt. Al Principe, who has been overseas for 18 months. While in this locality he and his buddy, Pvt. John Ross, chose New Castle for their furlough. Instead of going on to their homes in New York, they made the USO center their headquarters "because we felt at home and met some grand people," he relates. This is the general sentiment of the many messages sent by those in uniform.

SOME FERTILIZER RESULTS

A study of the department of agriculture of 26 state pasture experiments shows that one pound of plant food produced an increase of 16 pounds of digestible nutrients the equivalent of 4 bushel of corn, 35 bushel of wheat, 8 bushel of oats or 22 pounds of oilmeal. Thus a ton of complete fertilizer would produce increased grazing equal to 11,500 pounds of milk or 1,400 pounds of beef.

TO MY FELLOW CIO MEMBERS WHO REFUSE TO "CLEAR EVERYTHING WITH SIDNEY"

Like Brother Sidney Hillman, I am an officer of the C. I. O. Also, like brother Hillman, I am organizing my fellow workers politically, but I am organizing them in opposition to the things Brother Hillman stands for.

Many of you called for a Political Labor Committee which would oppose the high handed methods of the POLITICAL ACTION COMMITTEE. Now you have it.

I have taken a leave of absence to organize the Labor Division of Peoples Committee to Defend Life Insurance and Savings at wages exactly the same as I get for working at the bench.

I have no personal quarrel with Brother Hillman but refuse to "clear everything with Sidney". Although he is high in our Union and I am only a minor official, I assert my right, as an American Citizen, to vote and work for a President of my own choosing. I have been censured for this and I may lose my Union Membership and my job. However, I refuse to be intimidated or coerced.

TO ALL AMERICANS

When a union member loses his union card he loses his job. The thousands of C. I. O. workers who have already refused to contribute to the POLITICAL ACTION COMMITTEE are under the threat of losing their union cards and their jobs.

Support these courageous C. I. O. workers who stand firm against the POLITICAL ACTION COMMITTEE.

Regardless of whether you are a Republican or Democrat, white or negro, C. I. O.—A. F. of L.—R. R.

CITIZENS OF AMERICA! YOU can get into the fight by helping to spread this message to your fellow Americans throughout the country.

For three generations, my family has served in America's wars. My two sons and daughter are in this war. I would be a coward to put my Union Membership and job above my political freedom—My Union Card above my country's flag.

I call on every Brother C. I. O. member who values his political independence to stand with me in this fight.

I ASK YOU TO REFUSE TO CONTRIBUTE TO THE POLITICAL ACTION COMMITTEE.

I ASK YOU TO REFUSE TO BE COERCED OR INTIMIDATED.

I ASK YOU TO STAND ON YOUR RIGHTS AS FREE AMERICANS.

I ASK YOU TO VOTE AND WORK FOR THE PRESIDENT OF YOUR CHOICE — NOT THE CHOICE OF BROTHER HILLMAN AND FARL BROWDER.

I ASK YOU TO STAND WITH ME IN THIS FIGHT FOR POLITICAL FREEDOM OF AMERICAN LABOR.

TO ALL AMERICANS

Brotherhood—M. W. A. or independent union, machinist, bricklayer, stevedore, office worker, lawyer, doctor or banker, I call upon you to support and stand with members of organized labor who are fighting for the political freedom guaranteed by the U. S. Constitution.

Governor Bricker Ends Long Tour

Vice Presidential Candidate Ends
16,000-Mile Campaign Trip
Through Nation

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 6.—(INS)—Gov. John W. Bricker concludes his vice-presidential campaign tonight with a radio address at six p. m. (CWT), from Columbus, capping an eight-week, 16,000-mile campaign tour that took him to the Pacific coast and twice to the Atlantic seaboard.

The Republican chief executive will ask for the election of his presidential runningmate, Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York, and of the man the Republicans have chosen to succeed him as governor, Mayor James Garfield Stewart of Cincinnati, as he speaks over a nationwide network.

The address will bring to 175 the number of speeches he has made since September 9.

The Bricker entourage arrived in Columbus early yesterday from Cleveland, with the governor having spent 31 of the last 35 nights on his special train.

Tomorrow the Brickers will cast their ballots in Columbus for the first time when they trek to the polling place near the governor's mansion. Previously they had voted either in suburban Grandview or Upper Arlington, where they had maintained residence.

Election Gasoline Deadline Tomorrow

Party workers who have applied for extra gasoline for transporting voters to the polls on Tuesday are reminded by the Rationing board that unless they call for their extra stamps tomorrow, they will not get them at all.

Some workers have evidently decided to use their own gasoline and then call for the extra stamps, but, according to a statement from the board's office this morning, no stamps will be issued for election work after Tuesday.

Albert A. Hoyland, finance director, acted as chairman of city council which met in the municipal building today. Most of the session was devoted to requests for investigations of assessments for 1945, council having decided some time ago that no change of 1944 assessments would be made. The mayor's report of police activities showed $754.20, collected in receipts during October.

DIFFERENCES IN WOOD

Generally, hardwoods are broad-leaved trees, softwoods are needle bearers. These terms have nothing to do with the actual hardness of the wood. Most hardwoods are deciduous, meaning that they shed their foliage annually, while most softwoods are evergreen; i. e., they retain their leaves for more than one year.

SHORT of Cash?

TODAY'S increased cost-of-living and the new Pay-As-You-Go Tax leave a lot less from each pay check for everyday needs. And when expenses like dental and medical care, house repairs or insurance premiums come along, they put a dent in the budget. Loans at Personal are arranged simply and privately on your furniture, auto or signature. Co-signers are seldom required. To get a loan, come in, phone or write.

Mrs. Keith McAfee, chairman of the Home Service Committee for the Lawrence county chapter of Red Cross announced today.

While delivery of these messages cannot be guaranteed, they need not be limited to 25 words. Relatives and friends here who wish to send such a message should contact the Red Cross office.

Families should continue to write to prisoners of war held in the Philippines, the Red Cross office advises.

(BULLETIN)

MOSCOW, Nov. 6.—(INS)—Thirty German divisions have been cut off from East Prussia in the Baltic states and are being hammered to "smotherers". Premier Marshal Joseph Stalin said today in a speech on the 27th anniversary of the Bolshevik revolution.

Stalin, who was given the "victory order" by Soviet Premier Mikhail Kalinin as part of the program, told a meeting of the supreme Soviet that the fourth year of war had been one of "decisive victories" for the Soviet armies and those of their allies.

Plan Burial Of British Officer

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—(INS)—Field Marshal Sir John Dill, who died in Walter Reed hospital Saturday night, will be buried with full military honors in Arlington national cemetery, it was announced today.

The funeral services will be held Wednesday at 2 p. m. in the National Cathedral of St. Albans, and the funeral cortege will proceed directly from there to Arlington cemetery for the interment.

Before he died, Sir John expressed the wish that his friends, instead of sending flowers to the funeral, should donate an equivalent amount to the American Red Cross.

SAVE SOLDIER MAIL
SCRANTON, Pa.—(INS)—Relations of wives of service men were advised to save letters of fighting men as proof for possible future claims. SAVAGE ATTACKS BEING MADE BY GERMAN FORCES gained the town in a counterattack, continued to meet strong pressure from all types of arms.

Mopping Up

A mile west of Schmidt the Americans pressed a campaign to mop up enemy remnants in the Hurtgen forest.

In the area of Meijel, in the Netherlands salient some 40 miles northwest of Aachen, American-supported British Second Army forces battled the Germans in heavy fighting in a continued drive on the town of Venlo, on the Dutch-German frontier.

The American Third Army in France, again on the march just below Luxembourg, freed the town of Berg, northeast of Thionville.

The Sixth Army group southward in France maintained progress in the Baccarat sector and took the village of St. Barbe.

Headquarters of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower reported "excellent" progress in the Allied drive in western Holland which has carried the 21st Army group line up to the Maas (Meuse) river and the Hollandsch Diep along a 15-mile front running westward from above Hertogenbosch to Geertruidenberg.

British and Canadian troops pressing the final phase of the drive to clear the enemy from Walcheren Island struck to within 1,000 yards of Middelburg, flooded capital of the island. Capture of Middelburg was expected soon.

British Gain

(A Reuter dispatch from supreme headquarters reported that Allied troops had entered the suburbs of Middelburg.)

In the push to the Maas south bank the British forces gained control of practically all except two pockets of German resistance, one at Moerdijk which was said to be four miles wide and two miles deep, and the other at Willemstad.

The Germans are expected to try to hold the pockets as long as possible for evacuation of more troops across the Maas.

The battle tempo inside Germany developed to a furious pitch at some points while to the northwest and west British Second Army troops and other Allied forces maintained relentless pressure to push the Nazis back out of Holland.

(German quarters reported an intensification of British action in the Arnhem area, supported by fresh paratroops landings in an attempt to strike at the northern end of the Siegfried line.)

Units of the 21st Army group in the Netherlands gained control of practically 15 miles of the south bank of the Maas (Meuse) river from Hertogenbosch to Geertruidenberg.

Rabbi Leo E. Turtitz, a former member of the New Castle Kiwanis club, will be the guest speaker at the noon luncheon meeting in The Castleton Wednesday noon.

Preparations will be made at this time for the observance of the 25th anniversary of the club, which will be an event of November 15.

What Has Your Congressman Louie Graham Done For You?

YOU DON'T KNOW!

Well here's the story—in 5 years in Washington, Louie Graham has done a fine job of protecting the interests of Industry and the Public Utilities at the expense of you and your neighbors—his term in office has been the most brazen act of misrepresentation in the annals of Congress.

IF YOU ARE A FARMER he misrepresented you when he voted against:

1. The Rural Electrification Program.
2. Incentive Payments to farmers.
3. Crop Insurance for farmers.
4. The Home Owners Loan Corporation, a program that has enabled 5,000,000 farmers to purchase their farms.

IF YOU ARE A LABORER, A MINER, OR MILLWORKER he misrepresented you when he voted for:

1. The Smith Amendments, whose passage would have destroyed Collective Bargaining.
2. The Smith-Connally Bill.
3. The Ruml Tax Bill which forgave Industry 75% of its '42 tax at the expense of the general public.
4. Reduction of funds for the enforcement of O. P. A.

IF YOU ARE AN AMERICAN, he misrepresented America and you when as an Isolationist adherent to Ham Fish's foreign policy, he voted against:

1. Revision of Neutrality Bill.
2. Lend Lease, a subsidy on American lives—our boys lives.
3. Conscription Bill, a program that enabled America to train our boys and build a nucleus around which our great Army and Navy have grown.
4. Arming our Merchant ships, thereby costing the lives of thousands of our Merchant Seaman.
5. The Simplified Soldiers Ballot depriving millions of Americans the right of vote.

Ann Sheridan To Consult Doctor

Possibility Of Having Picked Up
Tropical Fever On Asia Tour
To Be Checked

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 6.—(INS)—Spells of fever and other symptoms will cause film star Ann Sheridan to consult an expert on tropical diseases, it was learned today.

The red-haired actress, who recently returned from an overseas trip to Africa, India, Burma and China, confirmed the stories told by friends today, but said she didn't think there was anything much the matter with her and doubted if it had anything to do with her tour.

"It's merely a precautionary step," declared the star. "They advise you to do it when you return from the Orient. Sometimes you pick up a little of this or that over there and it's a good idea to have a check-up."

The actress lost 12 pounds on her trip, but said she had gained back five.

"I imagine all I need is a little more rest," she declared.

Local Soldier's Trip Is Greatly Extended

Sgt. Louis C. Edmiston, 405 Burke street, is one of a quartermaster depot company, located in Belgium, which had the experience of finding what was intended to be a 12-hour trip extended to a three and one-half day journey.

The difficulty came because the outfit was moving over track that had not been used since being badly bombed by Allied planes, and stops had to be made for track repairs all along the way. To make it worse, the train could not use its headlights at night because of fear of bombing.

There were no seats on the train, so travel was miserable. The men loosened their blanket rolls and spread them on the floor at night to catch up on their sleep. Dirty and battered, they finally arrived at their destination three days late and began immediately to make up for the time they lost.

Twenty-Four Killed In Crash Of Transport Plane In California
Saturday

HANFORD, Cal., Nov. 6.—(INS)—Official investigators today continued to probe the wreckage of a Transcontinental Western Air transport plane which crashed in a field near Hanford late Saturday, killing twenty-four persons.

Both government and TWA officials were at the scene of the wreck but as yet had no theories to offer on the cause of a mid-air explosion which according to witnesses disintegrated the big Douglas DC-3 liner and sent it plummeting to earth.

A coroner's inquest was expected to be held later in the week to establish officially the cause of death of twenty army and navy personnel, three crew members, and one passenger.

Names of the military personnel were withheld pending notification of next of kin. The civilian passenger was identified as Dr. B. D. Saklatwalla, Pittsburgh, Pa., scientist.

Lt. Bill McChesney Leaves Prisoner Train In Civilian Clothes, Reaches French Maquis

(Special To The News)
NEW WILMINGTON, Nov. 6. — Former Westminster student Lieutenant William H. McChesney, returned recently to his home in Pittsburgh after a series of story-book adventures as a dive bomber pilot in the European theater.

On his seventy-second sortie, McChesney was forced to bail out over France when his plane was badly damaged. German soldiers found him and took him to a prison on the Swiss-German border.

After seven days he and 50 other Americans were put on a train headed for Germany. At midnight the train stopped to change engines, and McChesney, dressed in a French civilian coat, was able to overcome his guard and escape through the crowd in the station.

McChesney contacted the French underground. Taken to the Maquis commander of the area, he was sent as a representative of the French army to meet the approaching American Seventh army coming up from the south.

"They wanted to make sure of American strength and willingness to help them," the former Westminster student told Pittsburgh attorney.

Met by American officers, the pilot quickly was taken to headquarters from where he was flown to Rome, Naples, Algiers, Casablanca back to London, and then was sent to his outfit in France.

McChesney has been in the service since October, 1942.

The name William, or its equivalent, is used more often by men than any other given name, approximately five million men using it. For women, Mary is the most used name, nearly six million bearing it or some variation of it.

Britain Shows Much Interest In U. S. Election

LONDON, Nov. 6.—(INS)—The American election has all England talking today, with the majority of Britishers seemingly more interested in the outcome next Tuesday than in the progress of the allied armies.

Although the British press has tried to maintain a strict impartiality, the average citizen is more outspoken. He feels that the United States and Britain will have to work together in the years ahead and that the election is most important to him for that reason.

There is little doubt that Roosevelt is favored to win but, as many frankly admit, their choice is based solely on the fact that they know the president while Dewey is pretty much an unknown quantity in England.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—Quick pick-ups along the sports trail.

Bob Considine went all the way to Mayor LaGuardia of New York to try to get the Army and Navy to move to Yankee stadium for the war bond drive. LaGuardia tackled everybody, including Mr. Roosevelt himself and finally said "no go." So it stays at Annapolis to be remembered perpetually as the peak of wartime nonsense.

Incidentally, as long as Sports Writer Considine seems to be in training on these premises we can mention that a movie has been made from his book written with Capt. Ted Lawson, "Thirty Seconds Over Tokyo," and it is a movie you will like. A preview witnessed by a few last night left all the women spectators weeping and the men convinced that these young men who fly our war planes and gallantry that someone sets them apart. They are not braver or better soldiers than G. I. Joe or any of the rest, but that modern method of fighting in the skies gives them a sort of lyrical edge over warriors of the past.

High School Students Handle Applications For Rationing Board

Doing more than just talking about rationing, about 30 students from the Business Efficiency club, honor students in the high school commercial classes, have been giving whole mornings and afternoons to help the staff at the ration board handle the "A" book applications which have been sailing into the office during the past week.

The kids aren't doing this just to get out of class, either, they explain seriously. They are held responsible for all the work which they are missing, and they must make it up.

Divided into groups of six, seven, or eight, different shifts of students were at the rationing office every day last week, and were again on the job this morning.

"They're doing a fine job, too," says the office force of the board. "We're completely up to date on all of the applications."

Big Navy Eleven Tops Notre Dame

Score Is 32 To 13 As Middies Pour It On Heretofore Unbeaten Irish

ARMY OHIO STATE KEEP ON WINNING

By JOHN CASHMAN
(International News Service Sports Editor)

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—(INS)—Army's current status as the nation's No. 1 football team on the college circuit is confirmed today, not by the stalwarts of West Point, but by the Midshipmen of Annapolis, who toppled undefeated Notre Dame, 32 to 13.

A Navy team which got off to a slow start this season and now has just hit its stride rolled over the Irish in convincing fashion last Saturday and automatically made the South Bend boys underdogs for their game against Army in New York this week-end.

Meanwhile, Army actually loafed to an 83 to 0 victory over Villanova. The cadets resorted to such score-shortening devices as trying for field goals on second down and shortening the last two periods by seven minutes each.

Duke Tops Georgia Tech

A stunning upset was scored in Durham, N. C., when Duke's Blue Devils, after four defeats, turned the tables on unbeaten and untied Georgia Tech, 19 to 13.

Ohio State marched to its sixth straight triumph on a powerful surge in defeating Indiana, 21 to 7. While Purdue, led by Boris Dimancheff, scored a 35 to 0 triumph over Wisconsin.

Pennsylvania and Columbia will battle it out on Franklin field Saturday with the Red and Blue ready to avenge the 41-19 defeat suffered at the hands of superior Michigan eleven. Columbia was topped 25-7 by Cornell while Penn was going down to defeat.

Temple Vs. State

Temple and Penn State will renew their rivalry at Temple stadium Saturday. Temple went all the way to Morgantown, West Virginia, to have the mountain state register a 6-0 victory while Penn State was more successful on its trip to Syracuse where it shut out the Orange 41-0.

Little Villanova was ready to battle Camp Kilmer's service team in retaliation for the humiliating 83-0 defeat placed on the books by Army's cadets.

Bucknell, fresh from a 26-0 win over New York University, was ready to take on City College of New York at Lewisburg.

Mars Is Leading Tri-County Loop

Mars high school football team having trimmed Zelenople 34 to 0 last Friday night now leads the newly created Tri-County football league with four wins and no defeats. Mars has Bessemer yet to play in the Tri-County slate on November 16, at Mars.

Zelenople's defeat by Mars was the first league game they have lost and are in second place, with four wins and one defeat.

Standing of the league to date:

Team	W	L	T
Mars	4	0	0
Zelenople	4	1	0
Bessemer	2	2	0
Shenango	2	3	0
Union	1	3	1

Chicago Bears Top Green Bay

(International News Service)

The Green Bay Packers today smarted under their first defeat of the season, a 21 to 0 shellacking administered by the Chicago Bears.

Philadelphia and Washington maintained their undefeated record in the eastern division, the former beating Brooklyn, 21 to 7, and the latter defeating Cleveland at Washington, 14 to 10.

At Pittsburgh Frankie Sinkwich, as usual, spearheaded the offense that gave the Detroit Lions a 27 to 6 decision over the Card-Pitts and the latter club its sixth defeat. Frankie threw two touchdown passes, bucked over for another, and made three conversions.

The New York Giants stayed within striking distance of the eastern division title by whipping the Boston Yanks, 31 to 0, at Boston.

Resists Officer; Suffers Injury

Joe Gardner, South Jefferson street, required hospitalization after engaging in a battle with Patrolman Cubellis Saturday afternoon at East Washington and South Mercer streets.

His head lacerations were sewed after which Mayor John F. Haven fined him $10 on a charge of being intoxicated and resisting a policeman.

Buzz-Bomb Engine Is Built By Ford

DETROIT, Nov. 6.—(INS)—Ford ingeniously today was responsible for a test jet propulsion "buzz-bomb" engine for the army air forces which was designed, built and put into operation in three weeks time.

Ford engineers and production men built the engine using a magazine illustration of a robot bomb in flight, plus a plane load of wrecked Nazi robot engine parts and a vague report of their "apparent" construction.

Despite that the paracutin volcano has ruined many villages and made useless thousands of acres, many people in Mexico point to it with pride because it is genuine home-owned phenomenon.

Local Infantryman Describes Howitzer As 'Ugly Duckling'

Cpl. Theodore H. Tubbs In Front-Line Group Which Uses Stub-Nosed Pack Howitzer

SIXTH ARMY GROUP, France—The stub-nosed 105 mm. pack howitzer is somewhat of an "ugly duckling" in the artillery family, but she is a sweetheart to cannon company men who fire her and to several infantry men who see the result of her fury according to Theodore H. Tubbs, 15 South Round street, New Castle.

Prey of this front-line artillery piece is the most immediate obstacle in the path of attacking infantry—a machine-gun or mortar post, a tank or armored car. Forward observers in position with a spearhead of attack spot points of resistance and direct fire by radio, trusting the howitzer's "accuracy where accuracy counts."

DIVORCE GRANTED

A divorce has been granted John Ernest Lee from Orvetta Lanaih Lee by Judge W. Walter Braham.

THREE SENTENCES

Three brothers, William Book, Leonard Book and John Book were placed upon probation for three years and ordered to pay the costs and doctors' bill for treatment of E. B. Casaccia who the brothers pleaded to assaulting. The total will come to about $300.

bringing the total to 7190. Nine were sent out Saturday with the probabilities that few of them would be delivered in time for the soldier or sailor to vote on Tuesday.

One request came from a service man with an APO number. Even if he were in England it is doubtful he would get it but the commissioners ordered ballots to be sent out as long as requests came in before Monday, November 6.

Others of the nine sent out Saturday went to Sampson, N.Y., one to Harrisburg, one to North Carolina and one to the state of Washington. No more will be sent out for it would be physically impossible for ballots to go out today and be filled in before midnight Tuesday, unless the camp were located within a short distance of New Castle.

On Saturday 2330 military ballots had been returned.

EXTRA GAS FOR ELECTION UNDER IRONCLAD RULES

HARRISBURG, Nov. 6.—(INS)—Local rationing boards may issue supplemental gasoline coupons to party workers for transportation of voters to the polls tomorrow only under the ironclad rules approved by the Office of Price Administration. Walter C. Young, acting director of the Harrisburg OPA district, said today.

He emphasized that extra rations will not be issued to county political chairmen for redistribution among workers.

"The boards in our district have been instructed to be guided only by the regulations that very clearly define the procedure that must be followed and despite reports to the contrary there has been no relaxation of rules," Young declared.

He explained that OPA regulations provided for extra gasoline supplies for transporting voters especially when adequate means of transportation were not available or for hauling aged and infirm to the polls.
